Job Title:	Summer Camp & Spiritual Life Coordinator
Salary Band:	Term Contract
Reports To:	Summer Camp & Outdoor Schools Manager
Contract Date:	June 1st – 3rd + July 1st – August 17th
Compensation:	Commensurate with experience, certifications, etc. (Food, accommodation & water taxi provided)

Job Purpose

The Summer Camp & Spiritual Life Coordinator provides programmatic components and mentorship to summer camp participants and staff with regard to spirituality and spiritual exploration at Camp Fircom. In addition to sharing the day-to-day responsibilities of summer camp operations with three associate coordinators, the Spiritual Life Coordinator will provide spiritual, mindful and reflection-based activities as part of the camp program structure. This includes but is not limited to spiritual reflections and practices, discussion, and games/activities which engage participants in reflection about oneself, their relationship with something greater than themselves (god, earth, humanity, etc) and the community around them, encourage spiritual inquiry and help them to navigate the complicated relationships and questions affecting and governing their lives at any given age.

Rooted in the values of the United Church, Fircom respects and accepts people of all faith backgrounds, and no faith background, and seeks to help all individuals explore their own spirituality. Fircom is not evangelical but draws on the teachings of Christianity to offer and strengthen programming, which encourages spiritual exploration of all kinds.

Working Scope

Reporting directly to the Summer Camp & Outdoor Schools Manager, the Summer Camp & Spiritual Life Coordinator provides leadership to Camp Fircom's summer staff team, its camp programs and services, assuring delivery of high-quality camping experiences for children, youth and families, with a specific focus on offering and strengthening programs which cultivate spiritual exploration.

This position focuses on integrating spiritually reflective programmatic components and mentorship into Fircom's summer operations, and bringing leadership to camp programs through direct support of the counsellor staff team, ensuring the safe operation of programs and high-quality camper care. This will be achieved by: 1) creating high-quality, intentional programming, which fosters spiritual reflection, and working to integrate these programs into summer operations, staff training and youth/family support, and; 2) by ensuring staff and volunteers are well trained and highly effective in the delivery of programs and services on behalf of Camp Fircom Society. Building and maintaining relationships is a major role for the Summer Camp & Spiritual Life Coordinator, ensuring that campers, families, camp partners and the broader community continue to become invested and trust in Camp Fircom as an organization.

Success in the position will be measured by positive outcomes for staff training, a high degree of teamwork in the staff team, a deep level of camper engagement in programs/activities, safe and meaningful delivery of programs, and the ability of SSC's to effectively support staff through personalized feedback, and one-on-one/team discussions.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Summer Camp & Spiritual Life Coordinator will provide direct and indirect leadership to all aspects of residential camp operations and programs including, but not limited to:
